From the Pastor's Desk.....

Today is the Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time and we hear first from Jeremiah. In a world that permits the taking of life from the womb, the words God speaks to Jeremiah are especially striking: "in the womb I knew you." The words mean more than Jeremiah being set apart, dedicated to the Lord before he was even born. Before God gives Jeremiah any title, he is already in a relationship with him. Today's reading leaves out the section where Jeremiah argues that he is too young to undertake this role. Often the sign of a true prophet is his or her unwillingness to accept the role because it is a thankless job that brings more suffering and sorrow than reward. In response to Jeremiah's hesitancy, God reassures him for the task he will embrace. Notice that the words God uses are military in nature: "gird, stand, I command you, fortified city, pillar of iron." God speaks as if Jeremiah is preparing for war. And, in a sense he is as he will battle his brother priests and Jewish officials. The final line became a battle cry for the Jewish people when God told Jeremiah, "I am with you."

Today's words from Paul are his most poetic and perhaps the most poetic in all Scripture. He tells the Corinthians to seek the greatest spiritual gifts, not the showy gifts like speaking in tongues. He says that without love nothing matters.

Jesus is now home and he's just proclaimed an Isaian text declaring release to prisoners and sight to the blind. But his own neighbors react with a peculiar kind of blindness. Luke tells us they were amazed, but then they shift asking how a hometown boy could be so bright. They know his family and they wonder how he could have such insight. Luke is cleverly showing us that what happens in Jesus' hometown—praise followed by condemnation—will happen later in Jerusalem. Because the liberation he will bring is not what the people expect, Jesus already knows that his message will not satisfy many. They seek signs and wonders; he brings truth. Jesus then cites two prophets who were rejected and who then turned to the Gentiles. Like a match tossed among tumbleweeds, Jesus' words ignite their passions and they drive him from their midst.

There are envelopes in the back of church if you would like to donate and help us with the expenses of our upcoming Homeless Shelter. The week costs us several thousand dollars. We need a thousand for utilities, etc. for the Russian Church of the Nativity Social Center, we need to rent dumpsters, hire a cleaning service, purchase plates, utensils, some of the guests will need a new pair of pants or shoes, etc.

If you are also interested in volunteering to help with the Shelter please call the parish office and someone will contact you. All volunteers are mentored.

I will offer Scripture classes on Wednesday, March 2, March 9 and March 16. The 10 AM class will cover the dramatically different presentations of the Passion and Crucifixion of Jesus as found in the four gospels. The evening class will be an Introduction to the Four Gospels. All I ask is that people call in with a reservation so that we know how many handouts to print. If you are interested in the evening class, please also indicate a preferred time and I will go with the majority. It appears that people are preferring that class be at 6 PM.

We recently cleaned out the vault at St. Patrick's rectory and you wouldn't believe what all we found. There is a bill for a 1900 funeral from the Quinn Funeral Home (which at that time was located across the street from the rectory). Also in the vault was Pierre Hamot's will. Pierre Hamot was one of early Erie's wealthiest citizen's and was the maternal grandfather of Charles Strong. The Strong mansion at 6th & Peach is now Old Main of Gannon University. Hamot owned a huge amount of property in the First Ward and gave one of those lots to St. Patrick's at the time of his death in 1846. Later his family would donate his home at the foot of State Street to become the first Hamot Hospital. We also found the assets of the estate of Fr. Joseph Cauley, youngest of the four brothers who died suddenly in 1919. His estate was valued at $180,000 which gives you an indication of the enormous wealth of the family.

The four Cauley brothers served here from 1892 until 1954 and were extremely generous to the parish. They built the present 34 room rectory out of their own money in 1915.

Our 2016 Catholic Service Appeal drive will get underway in mid-February and this year I am particularly appealing for your help. Our assessment at St. Patrick's has increased from $44,000 last year to over $64,000 this year. Any money we raise above and beyond the assessment can stay in the parish, and those are the funds we use to pay down the debt on the restoration of the church. I'm hoping that you will help me with this appeal when you receive the mailing from us in February.

Representatives from all of the parishes in the Erie Vicariate will meet on Tuesday, April 12, at Our Lady of Peace for the next meeting of the Pastoral Planning process. It is expected that this meeting will present a draft proposal of the reorganization of parishes in the diocese.

The lawyer is cross-examining the doctor about whether he checked the pulse of the deceased before he signed the death certificate. "No," he said, "I didn't check his pulse." "And did you listen for a heartbeat?" asked the lawyer. "No, I did not," replied the doctor. "So," said the lawyer, "when you signed the death certificate, you had not taken steps to make sure he was dead." And the doctor replied, "Well, let me put it this way. The man's brain was in a jar on my desk, but for all I know he could be out practicing law somewhere."

Prayer For Those with Profound Disabilities

Lord Jesus Christ,

You know the pain of brokenness, You took our weaknesses upon Your shoulders and bore it to the wood of the cross. Hear our prayers for our brothers and sisters whose bodies fail them and whose minds are crippled by the ravages of disease. Implant a love for them deep within our hearts, that we, disfigured and disabled by our sin, may treasure and nurture the gifts of their lives. May we find You in their weakness, and console You in our care for them. For You are Lord, forever and ever. Amen

229 DAYS UNTIL THE IRISH a FESTIVAL

Kathy Sertz can be found most Saturday evenings at 5:00 Mass with her husband, Jim. Kathy is another great example of what a caring, giving parish we have— she answered a plea in the bulletin to replace the chairperson for Festival decorations when he couldn't continue back at Rainbow Gardens. She recruited Jim and their good friends Ray and Patty Fiorelli to help out, and they've been handling it ever since. It's a big job—making sure all of the signs are right and more importantly, actually where they are needed. She photographs every booth and tent to make sure nothing is forgotten the following year and sorts and packs everything away when the festival closes. You can usually hear her during festival set up, "A little more to the right, Jim!"

Kathy and her crew can always use help for set-up and tear-down, and you won't find a more delightful boss to work for, so please consider volunteering. Tall people are especially good, but we do have ladders.

Kathy's email is marysertz@yahoo.com.

Mary and Joseph must have been proud when their village "all spoke well of Jesus and were amazed at his words." But they probably felt shame when the same people drove him out of town. Like Mary and Joseph, the highs and lows of parenting are our path to being a Holy Family.

Child Protection and Creating Safe Environments Online Safety Tip for Parents & Kids:

Place the computer in a well-trafficked area in the home where the whole family can use it. While this practice can help with younger children, parents need to realize that children today access the Internet in many ways: school, library, coffee shop, work or a friend's house. Devices such as cell phones, smart phones, consoles like Xbox and Play Station enable them to go online almost anywhere. Be aware of any other computers your child may be using. To see what the Diocese of Erie is doing to help create safe environments, check out <http://www.eriercd.org/protectyouth.htm>
