From the Pastor's Desk.....

Today is the First Sunday of Lent and we read from Deuteronomy. For its author, people and identity are one. There can be no such thing as people without memory because it is not enough to share a common history; that history must be kept alive in memory if it is to bind us together. The same holds true for religion: it is our memory of what God has done for us in history that draws us together to celebrate and enables us to live in hope. That is precisely what is happening in the ritual in today's text. The ritual is one of the oldest in the Bible and is to be repeated by each successive generation. Those repeating it will remember those who lived the story and become one with their ancestors. The event today is the annual Harvest Festival. The "basket" offered contains the ritual offering of "first fruits" reserved for God. It is a story of God delivering his people from Egypt and bringing them to a land flowing with abundance.

Our excerpt from Romans is a joyful declaration of faith which should apply to both sides of the brain because it uses both logic and the compelling influence of the heart. Paul is both teacher and evangelist. Some people respond better to the tugging of their hearts, but others need persuasive logic to draw them into faith. Belief in Christ, he tells us, is transformative. It eliminates the distinction between Jew and Greek but it also transforms us from here and now to committed doers of God's word. What we speak with our lips and believe in our hearts turns into concrete action.

Following his baptism, Jesus enters the desert to pray and ends up doing battle with the forces of evil. In scripture, the desert is always a place of trial. Jesus is strengthened in his relationship with his Father but weakened by his fasting and the devil seeks to take advantage. Notice that each time Jesus rejects a temptation, Satan offers no rebuttals, only new temptations.

Parishioners at both St. Patrick's and St. Hedwig's are in the process of receiving mailings from the parish concerning the 2016 Catholic Services Appeal. Money raised in this annual appeal helps with the costs of Catholic Charities, St. Martin's Center, retirement costs for diocesan priests, and now the added cost of the Marriage Tribunal because we have eliminated all fees for annulments. At St. Hedwig's, the assessment this year is $10,910. At St. Patrick's, the assessment is $63,542. Those are both going to be tough goals to meet, but I'm hoping that you will help me and make a pledge. Pledges can be paid over the course of the coming year or paid at once. A monthly billing is sent out for balances. To help kick off the appeal, I will personally pledge $1,000 toward the goal.

I will offer two Scripture classes during Lent on March 2, 9 & 16. The 10 AM class will address the Passion and Death of Christ as found in the different gospels. The 6 PM class will be an Introduction to the four gospels. Each class lasts from 45 minutes to an hour. No bible is needed. We will provide handouts. Simply call the office (454-8085) and let us know if you will be attending so we know how many handouts to prepare.

Several weeks ago I put an announcement in the bulletin that St. Patrick's Haven was in need of volunteers to prepare a Sunday evening dinner for 21 men. Twenty-three people from the parish stepped forward and are now in the cycle of people helping with this. I've never been in a parish with a social conscience like you have. Makes a pastor's heart skip a beat. In addition, several of you stepped forward to help with the Food Pantry at St. Martin's Center. And remember that this is on top of all of the people who volunteer for our own Food Pantry and our Homeless Shelter.

This past Tuesday evening, we hosted parish ministers for Mardi Gras to thank all of those who minister in the parish. We hosted a 5:30-7:30—cocktail party for all of our Eucharistic Ministers, lectors, ushers, choir, greeters, Station Keepers and chairs of our various events. The invitation included spouses because, if one party is giving time to the parish, the other is picking up some slack. It's a way not only to say thank you but also to get parishioners to know one another better. We held the event in the Yehl Room at Gannon University. Why not consider becoming part of one of our ministries and joining us next year for a fun evening?

My biggest challenge at St. Patrick's is trying to build community, getting people to know one another, and events like this gathering of parish ministers is one way to accomplish that.

Our Homeless Shelter ended this past Wednesday evening, and a special thanks to B J Lechner and his team of volunteers for organizing and directing the week. We had up to 70 guests on various evenings, served them a hot dinner, provided a shower, clean bed, coffee, etc. Volunteers staffed the event from 7 PM until 7 AM the following morning. It was a great deal of work and sacrifice on the part of everyone, but thanks to these volunteers, it was a great success. A special thanks also to all of you who supported this effort with your donations. Those donations totaled almost $6,500, all of which was spent for rent, utilities, cleaning service, dumpster, milk, coffee, bread, etc.

An atheist sat next to a little girl on an airplane as she read her book. "Would you like to talk?" he asked, "it makes the flight go faster." "What do you want to talk about?" she asked. "Well," he replied, how about the fact that God does not exist and that there is no heaven or hell." "I have a question for you," asked the little girl. "A deer, a cow and a horse all eat the same grass. Yet a deer excretes pellets, a cow a flat patty and a horse clumps. How do you explain that?" "I have no idea," answered the atheist to which the little girl picked up her book and said, "How can you talk about God and heaven and hell when you don't know crap?"

What is the purpose of observing Lent every year?

It is a time of preparation and purification for Easter. We prepare ourselves by prayer, fasting (self-denial), and almsgiving (works of mercy). Lent is a time to get to know Jesus better.

Lenten dinners

Every Friday at the 3rd Street Polish Falcons serving from 4:00 - 7:00 pm

Parishioner, Bobby J. Sulecki has created a website on the history of St. Hedwig Church and Erie's Polish Community and Churches and still needs your help. He is looking for your old photos (such as class pictures or any school pictures, church related, church wedding pictures, pictures of immigrant families, neighborhood pictures, corner stores, etc.) All items will be returned to you. If you would like to share your memories of St. Hedwig's growing up Polish, etc., there will be memory sheets located on the display table in the vestibule of the Church. Your stories need to be told. Your memories matter, no matter how big or how small.

A Family Perspective—First Sunday of Lent

Jesus "was led by the Spirit in the wilderness." What is the wilderness in your life to which the Holy Spirit is leading you this Lent? Perhaps there are uncharted areas in your marriage or family relationships. Spend this Lent in your "wilderness" with God work.

Where is the Spirit leading you this Lent?

215 DAYS UNTIL THE IRISH FESTIVAL

Valentine's Day. Time for a love story.

Abby Lechner is one of our newest festival committee members. She stepped forward when the call for a volunteer to handle the newly reconstituted children's program went out a couple of months ago. Abby, a consultant at Decision Associates and the mother of toddler twins, Kathryn and Meridith, is charged with coming up with interesting programs and fun activities to toddlers, tweens, and teens, as well as putting together a baby-sitting program for young parents who want to volunteer time at the festival but need somewhere safe and fun to park junior.

It's a herculean task, but Abby is an old hand at community involvement, helping create events and fund raising for the art museum and the Sisters of Saint Joseph Neighborhood Network, among others.

So welcome to Abby and thanks for stepping up to the challenge. Abby would welcome your suggestions, your support, and your help. You can reach her at (843) 412-0275 or Abigail.Lechner@gmail.com.

So where's the love story? Well, turns out the lovely Abby Gallo, and Erie native moved to Charleston, SC after college. She came home for a visit and bumped into a charming fellow named Matt Lechner—on Valentine's Day, 2009. "Oh, oh, oh, it's magic," as the song goes, and all that's left of Charleston is the area code on Abby's cell phone. Both families, by the way, were delighted.

Gary and Becky Johnson, Festival Chairs, gjohnson@brotolosouth.com or beckykj@neo.rr.com. We welcome your suggestions or comments or offers of time, money or support.

JEWELRY AND PURSE DONATION EVENT

FEBRUARY 20 & 21—Front of church before each Mass

Let's be honest, the best way to ensure someone buys you new jewelry on Valentine's Day is to get rid of your old jewelry—"Honey, I have nothing to wear!" And the best way to rationalize buying that new hand-made Italian leather purse is to donate your old one—you can't live without a purse, right?

Please bring your gently used jewelry, watches (we'll put the batteries in), and purses to church before Mass on Saturday or Sunday, February 20 or 21, and one of the wonderful people from the Irish Festival jewelry sales committee will be very happy to accept your donation.

Your donated jewelry or purse will become someone else's treasure, just as it was once yours, when it is sold for a modest price and a great profit at the Irish Festival this fall, and you will be helping to support the good work of our great church.

If you have questions, give Patty Dailey a call at 814-461-9845. Thank you in advance for your generosity.
