From the Pastor's Desk.....

Today is the Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time. The land of northern Israel was overcome by pagan invaders and its citizens taken into exile in 721 BC, 135 years before this would happen again with the Babylonian invasion. The prophet Amos anticipates this destruction and sees it as the result of the nation's indifference to the needy. He denounces the excesses of the rich elite who delight in prosperity that benefits only them, while the poor get poorer. Because theirs is a chosen blindness to the suffering of others, it places an onerous load of guilt upon them. They feign religious observance, but their rituals become nothing more than excuses for more opulent living. Amos is blunt and forceful in his critique of them. He understands that the love of God never ignores the needs of one's neighbors and that prayer and sacrifice don't substitute for righteous living that includes sharing with the needy.

Paul is telling Timothy that leadership is both a privilege and a burden. Paul says the same is true of discipleship. He reminds him of his baptism and urges the young leader to compete well, letting no resistance or obstacles prevent him from staying in the race to the finish line. Note how the text seamlessly transitions into prayer at the end.

The message of this gospel, like that of today's first reading, is neither easy nor welcome. In both, we're told it's possible to run out of time and there is no reversing the fate that follows the sounding of the last bell. While God never tires of forgiving us, we often forget the need to ask his forgiveness and accept his mercy. The rich man in today's parable is more self-centered in death than he even was in life. He knows the right language (calling "Father Abraham") and he asks for pity, but he expresses no remorse and is as willing to use Lazarus in the "netherworld" as he was in life. For him, others exist to be at his service. When his request isn't met, he again asks to use Lazarus, this time as a messenger to his brothers.

Please remember that the parish office is closed on Fridays. We are open Monday through Thursday from 8:30 AM until 4 PM.

King Mohammed VI of Morocco said in a recent speech that "those who engage in terrorism in the name of Islam are not Muslims." Referring to the recent murder of a French priest, he said that "killing a priest is forbidden by religion; murdering him inside a church is unforgivable madness, for he is a human being and a religious man." He said that terrorists "have strayed from the right path, and their fate is to dwell forever in hell." 99% of Morocco's 33.9 million people are Muslim.

With Sister Marie's pending retirement, I am looking for some volunteers who might be interested in assisting Mary Kearney in taking the small children during the Liturgy of the Word at the Sunday 10:30 Mass. I'm hoping to get at least 4 people so that you would only have to do it once a month. The children go into the weekday chapel after the opening prayer and then return to their seats during the offertory. If you would be interested in helping with this, please contact the parish office and we'll set up a training session.

People have been dropping clothing on the side porch of the rectory, but we're finding more and more it is a dumping ground and we simply have no use for the clothing. In the future, please do not leave clothes on that side porch. Thanks.

At a recent meeting of both the Finance Council and the Parish Council, they approved a motion to close the parish office on Fridays. We will start that this week.

In addition, they approved the 2015/16 Financial and Spiritual reports which have been sent to the diocese. A copy of those for both parishes is in today's bulletin.

The Finance & Parish Councils also approved plans to begin the rebuilding of the pipe organ at St. Patrick's. That instrument has not been touched since the early 1970s and is desperately in need of work. I would hate to see it fall into disrepair. We are going to begin in 2017 and do the work over a period of several years. In the first year we will replace the console (at a cost in excess of $40,000). To do this, we will hear the organ for Christmas and then it will be shut down until Easter while the work is done. We will then hear it again from Easter, through the wedding season and through Christmas when it will be shut down for work to begin again.

We feel we will be able to undertake this project without a capital campaign, but instead use the money each year from the CSA to fund the project. As you can see, the financial status of St. Patrick's is very healthy, and we'll be able to undertake this work without having a major fund raiser or capital campaign.

Thanks to St. Patrick parishioner Jim Roehm, an accomplished artist, for a beautiful drawing which he did of the rectory. We're having it framed and it will hang in the entrance hall. That sketch was highlighted on the front of the September 4th bulletin.

Did you ever think of remembering your parish in your estate planning?

Some thoughts on exercise: I joined a health club. Spent $400 and haven't lost a pound. Apparently, you have to go there.....Every time I hear the word 'exercise' I wash my mouth out with chocolate.....The advantage of exercising every day is so when you die, they'll say, "Well, she looks good, doesn't she?".....If you are going to try cross-country skiing, start with a small country.....Every time I start thinking about how I look, I just find a Happy Hour. And by the time I leave, I look and feel just fine.

Eastside Catholic Faith Formation—

K-6 begins at 9:30 AM and 7-11 begins at 1:00 PM. Confirmation parents and sponsors should attend a short meeting after the students are dismissed for their first session.

If you have not registered, please stop by the Faith Formation office at the Holy Rosary campus, or call Mary Hickin at 454-6322.

Please note: Students that would like to receive the sacrament of Confirmation in 11th grade must have completed the 8th & 10th grade catechesis or have gone to a Catholic high school.

Retreat—

Are you in 10th grade or older? Interested in making a retreat? Divine Mercy Encounter is a three-day encounter with the Divine Mercy of Jesus and his call to discipleship. Learn more about your Catholic faith, the sacraments and the church. Share your faith journey with other young men and women. Financial aid is available for the next retreat on Nov. 18-20. Call Mary at 454-6322 for more information

MARRIAGE MOMENTS—

A fiancé was thrilled to have finally found Ms. Right. Not long after the wedding, he was disillusioned to discover that her first name was "Always." Of course you can reverse the genders. Negotiating differences and letting go of my way is the art of marriage.

A Family Perspective—

In today's gospel the rich man died and was condemned to "a place of torment" because he ignored the poor. He asked Lazarus to go and warn his five brothers to change their ways. Evidently ignoring the poor was a family pattern. What is your family's attitude toward those who are poor?

Child Protection and Creating Safe Environments

Code of Conduct: The Diocese of Erie is committed to protecting the children and youth who are entrusted to its care and to ensuring that those in ministry with our young people are in right relationship with the children/youth receiving services. To share in the ministry of Christ is a great privilege as well as a tremendous responsibility. The privilege is the joy of sharing in the mission of Jesus Himself. The responsibility is acting in a way that conforms to the attitude and actions of Christ. In this spirit, the diocese has issued a ministerial Code of Conduct, which can be accessed at <http://www.erie.org/pdf/protectionpolicy.pdf>. The code is included in the diocesan Policy for the Protection of Children, which also includes mandates for creating safe environments. To read the policy, go to <http://www.eriecd.org/pdf/protectionpolicy.pdf> For more information, contact Mrs. Karen Streett, at the diocesan offices at 814-824-1195
