From the Pastor's Desk.....

Today is the last Sunday of the church year and it is always celebrated as the feast of Christ the King. Jesus was often called "Son of David." David was Israel's king and Jesus claims his throne as king of Israel. This first reading celebrates Christ's kingship by looking back at his ancestry and linking him with David, who was Israel's greatest king, a man after God's own heart.

It is almost impossible to read this second reading without seeing cosmic images of stars being born and comets hurtling through space. Christ is presented as the eternal Word through whom God created the world. This text jumps from images of Jesus accomplishing the work of salvation by winning forgiveness of our sins to grand images of the eternal Christ, "the firstborn of all creation," bringing all things, "visible and invisible," into existence and reigning over the angelic powers of heaven. The structure of this passage is that of a liturgical hymn, in use at the time of this writing, which sings of Christ as "firstborn" of both creation and our salvation. He preceded all things and all things are held together by him. This primacy is discussed because false prophets had taught in Colossae that Christ was inferior to angels. Paul tackles this problem from prison by asserting that through Christ even the angles were created. His supremacy is underscored by the repetition (six times) that "all things" are under him.

In our gospel Jesus teaches from the cross. In the other liturgical years, from Matthew and John, we meet a Jesus totally in control on the cross. But here we have a nearly mute Jesus who is mocked and even condemned as a criminal. While he speaks no words to defend himself, he speaks only words promising salvation to one who is as much an outcast as he is. Even here Jesus demonstrates his kingship, for his pain and seeming helplessness are no impediment to pronouncing a sentence of life for the so-called "good thief." This man recognized and confessed his sins and ask for forgiveness. For this, he was canonized on the cross. He calls Jesus by name and asks, as should we, "Jesus, remember me." Just prior to today's reading, we hear Jesus say to his father of his tormentors, "Father, forgive them for they know not what they do." Forgiveness is a central theme of Luke's gospel from whom we have read this past year.

Our gospels this coming year will come from Matthew and will give us a very Jewish Jesus, one who is the fulfillment of all the Old Testament prophecies. We will also hear more gospels from John than we do in the years when our focus is on Luke, as it was this past year, or on Mark, as it will be following year.

The parish office will be closed Thursday and Friday for the Thanksgiving holiday.

Gannon University students participate in a school club called OPEN which addresses homelessness and poverty in our city. The organization educates its members about homelessness and how people deal with it on a daily basis. They also address how refugees adapt to this country and how Gannon can play a role in helping them. The group is now preparing baskets of food, school supplies, clothing, etc. to help refugee families. They are also connecting with homeless students enrolled in the Erie public school system. Nice to see college students so deeply aware and involved with the poor and the needy. Gannon's presence in our downtown community is indeed a blessing; even moreso when students reach out like this.

Michael DeSanctis teaches art at Gannon and on a regular basis brings his students to St. Patrick's and conducts a class in and on the church.

Now that the weather has turned cold and wintry the bus tours of St. Patrick's come to an end. During the spring, summer and fall, I think you would be amazed at how many tours we host. In the past, Sister Marie has been the docent giving those tours and Mark Alloway, our organist gives an explanation and a demonstration of the pipe organ. Now that Sister Marie has retired, Ken Daub is giving the tours.

Sister Marie also conducted the baptismal preparation class for new parents before the baptism of their baby. That project is now under the direction of Anne Causgrove. Another thing that Sister Marie did was entering the information about a marriage in the marriage register. That is much more than simply entering the information because we have to send notice of the marriage back to the church of baptism and then they return a form to us assuring us that they have entered the information next to the baptismal entry for that person. That work is now being done by Jan Gervase. And finally, Mary Kearney is now taking the children during the 10:30 Mass. If anyone would like to help with this project, please contact the parish office.

It seems every day I discover one more thing that Sister Marie did here, and I'm grateful that so many people have stepped forward to fill those roles. I won't say "fill her shoes," because no one is going to do that.

A conversation at Cheers. "Well, you see, Norm, it's like this. A herd of buffalo can only move as fast as the slowest buffalo. And when the herd is hunted, it is the slowest and weakest ones at the back that are killed first. This natural selection is good for the herd as a whole, because the general speed and health of the whole group keeps improving by the regular killing of the weakest members. In much the same way, the human brain can only operate as fast as the slowest brain cells. Excessive intake of alcohol, as we know, kills brain cells. But naturally, it attacks the slowest and weakest brain cells first. In this way, regular consumption of beer eliminates the weaker brain cells, making the brain a faster and more efficient machine. That's why you always feel smarter after a few beers!"

A Family Perspective—

Christ the King

of Heaven is not like Disney's Magic Kingdom. Admission to Christ's Kingdom is paid with the currency of acceptance, forgiveness, attention to the poor and the love of one's enemy.

Today's gospel reminds us the Kingdom

Marriage Moments—

Trip down Memory Lane #15. In every human life eventually tragedy strikes. It may not be life threatening or frequent, but it causes us to pause and reflect. What has been a significant misfortune of your life together so far? How do you support each other.

HOMELESS OVERFLOW SHELTER -COLLECTION OF DONATIONS:

St. Patrick's Parish will be hosting the homeless overflow shelter on February 1 - 7 at the Russian Church of the Nativity Social Center at Front & German Streets. The outpouring of generosity the past couple years has been amazing. This year, in addition to collecting personal hygiene toiletry items (shampoo, bath products, toothpaste, toothbrushes, deodorant, razors, shaving cream, combs, brushes, feminine hygiene products & hand sanitizers), we are also seeking cough drops, lip balm and hand warmers.

PLEASE NOTE THAT THESE ARE THE ONLY ITEMS WE CAN ACCEPT. Collection bins will be located in the church's main entrance at each Mass beginning in November. We greatly appreciate your donations.

Child Protection and Creating Safe Environments Online Safety Tips for Parents & Kids:

CyberTipline Fights Internet Crimes against Children - The National Center for Missing and Exploited Children, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and other government agencies all work together to fight Internet crimes against children. They've established "CyberTipline," a reporting mechanism for cases of child sexual exploitation including child pornography, online enticement of children for sex acts, child victims of prostitution, and unsolicited obscene material sent to a child. Reports may be made 24 hours a day, seven days a week online at www.cybertipline.com

Or by calling (800) 843-5678. To see what the Diocese is doing to help create safe environments, check out http://www.eriercd.org/protectyouth.htm

St. Martin Center 2016 Shining Stars-

The shining star tree begins the 1st Sunday of Advent, November 27th.

- Please place gifts in gift bags, rather than wrapping them. Gift bags are much easier to transport and wrapping paper gets torn up very quickly when moving gifts. Feel free to use grocery store bags, too!
- 2) Please securely attach the star to the gift (tape, tie, etc). Place multiple gifts in one bag and attach the star to the outside.
- 3) We ask that only stars that can be fulfilled on time be taken.
- 4) Gift receipts are highly encouraged. This will help if the child has an item that you purchased or if clothing does not fit. Feel free to buy gift cards, also (please include the child's name and star number on envelope).

All gifts need to be returned to the Church or Parish Office by Sunday, December 11, 2016.

The Community Outreach Group is a caring, non-profit group of individuals involved is being of service to our less fortunate neighbors in our community. We seek nothing for ourselves—only to share coats, clothing, a hot lunch, and a contagious smile. Our volunteers collect clothing throughout the year and on the first Sunday is December we host a Clothing Distribution Party to give it all away. We are supported through community donations and generous businesses. We make use of everything we receive. All leftover clothing and food goes to charities such as Erie Family Center, the Erie City Mission, etc. Originating in Ripley, NY, C.O.G. was re-established in Erie in 1999 by our cofounder and a group of men after they had participated together in a Roman Catholic Diocese of Erie Cursillo Movement weekend. Matthew 25:40 remains our inspiration
